

Whereas: In the United States there are still monuments dedicated to Confederate members that did horrible things to divide this country;

Whereas: These monuments glorify their legacy despite the horrible things they have done;

Therefore, Now Be It Resolved That: These Confederate monuments across the United States shall be taken down by the United States Department of Interior.

Respectfully submitted by Rep. Alexander Al-Najim of Edina High School