

A Bill to Mandate Driving Tests of Older Citizens

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

2 SECTION 1. All citizens 70 years and older must obtain a new driver's license, at
3 which time they must successfully complete both the written and driving
4 aspects of license screening. After the birthdate in an individual's 70th
5 year, said driver will have 60 days to acquire a new driver's license.
6 Following the 60-day grace period, the driver's licenses will expire and 7 penalties will be levied against drivers for driving with an expired license.

8 SECTION 2. A License to drive is a document permitting a person to drive a motor
9 vehicle. At all renewal dates following a driver's 70th birthdate, drivers
10 are required to complete both written and driving aspects of license
11 screening.

12 SECTION 3. NHTSA (National Highway Traffic Safety Administration) will provide 13 enforcement.

14 SECTION 4. This bill shall go into effect January 1, 2020.

15 SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.
